

SENIOR HAPPENINGS

CRANBURY, NJ

Golden Age Neighbors

Founded in 1959, the Golden Age Neighbors host a luncheon and speaker for members every other month at different restaurants in the area. If interested call Barbara at 609-655-6864

Cranbury Public Library

The library offers a variety of programs for all ages, including seniors. The library is located at 30 Park Place West, Cranbury. To check out the programs go to cranburypubliclibrary.org or call 609-722-6992

St. David's Episcopal Church

Senior programs include a Women's Lunch and Learn Book Club and Knitter's Club. St. David's hosts adult Tai Chi and Jazzercise classes for a fee. Call 609-655-4731 www.stdavidscranbury.com

Cranbury Senior Center

A dedicated space in Town Hall that provides programs twice a month, including a variety of activities/speakers and lunch. If interested, call the Cranbury Recreation Secretary, Scout, at 609-395-0900

The First Presbyterian Church of Cranbury

The church offers a free Senior Exercise Program on Zoom 2x a week, a Senior Fellowship Program, providing opportunities for social, recreational, and educational experiences, and weekly chair yoga. Email firstpresoffice@comcast.net or call 609-395-0897

The Woman's Club of Cranbury

Founded in 1898, the Woman's Club offers many opportunities for volunteering and socializing. There are many engaging departments for women of all ages. Check out this wonderful organization. <https://womansclubofcranbury.org>